1. FEES AND CHARGES

The completed application form for NZAAA Accreditation should be sent to the Business Manager, AIA, PO Box 2096 Wellington and must be accompanied with the correct payment. NZAAA Accreditation has three optional categories – fertiliser application (Aerial Spreadmark), Agrichemical application (GROWSAFE), and Vertebrate Toxic Agents. The basic fee covers Vertebrate Toxic Agents, Health and Safety Management, Fuel Storage and Handling, and QA procedures. Please indicate which categories are sought.

Item	Option selected (Y/N)	Application Fee
NZAAA Accreditation Application (basic fee)	Y	$500 + GST
Vertebrate Toxic Agents		Included in basic fee
GROWSAFE (Agrichemicals)		$200 + GST
Aerial Spreadmark *		$200 + GST
TOTAL

* Aerial Spreadmark has an annual fee of $200+GST that applies in years other than the year in which the audit is carried out. That is, the application fee is the annual fee for Aerial Spreadmark for that year.

2. NZAAA AUDITORS

The appointed auditor for NZAAA Accreditation is SGS Ltd. Upon receipt of an application for NZAAA Accreditation, The Executive Business Manager, AIA advises SGS Ltd that an application for NZAAA Accreditation has been received and requests that an audit be carried out.

Applicants should note that the audit fee for NZAAA Accreditation is calculated on time taken and that the auditor, following the audit, will invoice for this fee. Applicants should check and confirm with the auditor the likely cost of the audit including any travel or other disbursements before proceeding.
